MESSAGE

The Provincial Assembly of the Punjab is the oldest and the largest House of Legislature in the country. It has a very bright history with illuminating parliamentary conventions from its very beginning. It has been playing a vital and dynamic role in the legislative scenario of the country and the arena of politics. I am confident that the existing House, which is better poised, will uphold and continue the same traditions. The need of the time is to work together and with dedication and sacrifice. It is our duty to conserve and promote the treasured parliamentary conventions and to complement them with new democratic traditions.

In this context, the role of the present Assembly becomes more challenging. It is under obligation to accomplish the cherished goal visualized by the founder of the Nation, Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah and should justify the confidence reposed in it by the people. I pray and I wish that the Members fairly execute the oath of their office, and rise up to the expectations of the people of Pakistan.

The "Biography of Members" is a brief but authentic introduction of the sitting Members of the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab which will definitely serve as a valuable reference for the parliamentarians and public at large.

CH MUHAMMAD AFZAL SAHI
Speaker
Provincial Assembly of the Punjab

PREFACE

This compilation embodies brief synopsis of the Members of the present Provincial Assembly of the Punjab, showing date and place of birth, academic qualification, party affiliation and a gist of parliamentary career. The data contained in the handbook is based on the particulars provided by the members themselves.

Under the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab is constituted for a term of five years. The present Assembly consists of 371 members; 297 general seats, 66 seats reserved for women and 8 seats reserved for non-muslim communities.

The election of the present Assembly was held on 10 October 2002 and its first meeting was convened on 25 November 2002. Chaudhry Muhammad Afzal Sahi and Sardar Shaukat Hussain Mazari were elected as Speaker and Deputy Speaker respectively on 27 November 2002. Chaudhry Parvez Elahi was ascertained as Chief Minister Punjab on 29 November 2002.

This publication owes its origin and fulfillment to the impetus and inspiration dispensed by Chaudhry Muhammad Afzal Sahi, Speaker, Provincial Assembly of the Punjab. It is hoped that it would serve as a ready reference for the public representatives, government functionaries, political analysts, students and the general readers, alike.

SAEED AHMAD
Secretary
Provincial Assembly of the Punjab

INTRODUCTION

The present Provincial Assembly of the Punjab 2002, consisting of 371 members, is the largest Assembly in the country and was constituted as a result of General Elections held on 10 October 2002. Out of these 371 members, 297 members have been elected from the general seats, 66 from seats reserved for women and 8 members from seats reserved for non-Muslim minority communities. The Provincial Assembly, unless sooner dissolved, shall continue for a term of five years from the day of its first meeting i.e. 25-11-2002.

The elections to the general seats were held on the basis of joint electorate and single member constituency. The general seats have been distributed among 34 districts on the basis of population. The total population of this largest province, according to the census of 1998, is 72,585,000. The elections to the reserved seats were held on the basis of proportional representation and all the Political Parties had filed a panel of candidates nominated by them for election against the said reserved seats. Various political parties participated in the general elections.

The members made oath on November 25, 2002. The election for Speaker and Deputy Speaker was held on 27 November 2002. Chaudhry Muhammad Afzal Sahi was elected as Speaker securing 243 votes against 108 votes obtained by Rana Mashhood Ahmed Khan; and Sardar Shaukat Hussain Mazari was elected as Deputy Speaker securing 238 votes against 104 votes by Mr Mujtaba Shuja-ur-Rehman. Chaudhry Parvez Elahi, was ascertained as Chief Minister Punjab on November 29, 2002, securing 235 votes against Mr Qasim Zia, who obtained 102 votes. On November 30, 2002, 230 members expressed vote of confidence in the Chief Minister.
